

1.- Plaza Mayor (Main Square): find a famous Spanish writer, whose best known character is an hidalgo who sometimes sees giants instead of windmills, and take a bow in front of him.

2.- School courtyard: you are exhausted, and that grass looks so very inviting...

3.- The garden of Calisto and Melibea: plunge into the fountain! (Well, it is not necessary that you actually do it if you don't want to...)

4.- The façade of the University: this man was a poet and professor who lived during the Renaissance. Imitate his gesture!

5.- The house of the mussels and the Clerencia:
Beautiful view... You're so happy... You really have to... Dance.

8.-The Purísima: you're in a hurry, run!
